Mr. Quinn is directed to pay $70,000 of the property into the Manhattan Trust Company, pending the determination of a number of chaims which he makes against the Company, as indemnity for uniquidated damages. Arthur H. Mason was appointed a master to pass on these claims.

Pending settlement, the Manhattan Trust Company will pay rent and meet other obligations of the Company.

The warrant was issued on the complaint of his coachman, E. O. Johnson, who claims that Mr. Kendall owes him with a harmor last Saturday.

Mr. Kendall was taken before Justice to pass on these claims.

Mr. Kendall was an important witness in the last trial of the Sage-Laidlaw damage suit. He testified that he congratulated Sage shortly after the bomb was exploded in his office, and that Sage replied that if it had not been for the last coachman.
